

Albany Dining

• Shown with optional sideboard

• Quarter-sawn oak shows the straight grain that is the hallmark of traditional Mission style

• Self-storing butterfly leaf extends the table from 78" to 96" for extra seating capacity

• Cabled ball-bearing slides allow easy opening and closing of the table, even from just one side

• Vertical slats and end caps capture the true essence of traditional Mission style

• Chairs are corner-blocked on all four sides for rigidity and durability

• Contoured chair back provides the support for your lower back, ensuring great comfort

• Drawers of the sideboard feature English dovetail construction both front and back

• Durable hardware in matte gun metal finish ensures long lasting enjoyment

• Inspired traditional Mission style in straight grain oak veneer and solid hardwood. Sizes to fit any dining room with style that will endure; other features: traditional russet finish, durable PVC seats, ball-bearing metal glides on drawers, and ready to assemble
